FIVE MEN FALL

State Posse Is Forced to Retreat—1,
500 to 2,000 Armed Men Reported
Gathered at Blair, Logan County.

State Police Headquarters, Ethel, W. Va., Aug. 29.—Five men fell in an encounter early yesterday morning between an armed band and State troopers on Beach Creek, Logan county, near the Boone-Logan county line, Capt. J. R. Brockus commanding State police and deputy sheriffs, reported yesterday afternoon. There was much shooting on either side, he said. Whether all the men who fell were killed, Captain Brockus was unable to state.

He added that after his men had seen those who had fallen picked up and carried away by their companions, the State troopers and deputies retired because some of their number were in civilian clothes and it was difficult to distinguish them in the darkness from the men comprising the armed band.

The clash was at close range, according to Captain Brockus' report, the men firing at each other when but eight to ten feet apart.

Prior to the fight, Captain Brockus said, 11 prisoners had been taken by the patrolling party which set out from Logan yesterday, ostensibly toward Blair and Sharples. Four of the prisoners escaped during the engagement, it was said, and one of them is believed to have been killed.

Captain Brockus was at the head of the advance guard of five armed deputies. It was this detachment, comprising 12 men that engaged the armed band. The patrol, while proceeding toward Sharples, Captain Brockus reported, ran across five men on foot. All were armed with rifles and one had a shotgun, he said.

"We called upon these men to disarm, which they did," the Captain continued.

"We placed them under arrest and proceeded down the road. Further on we met two automobiles and placed six additional armed men under arrest.

"With the 11 prisoners we marched on toward Sharples and came upon another group of five armed men. Some one called to us that we would not be allowed to pass. We called upon them to surrender their arms, but received in reply a volley of shots.

"Our men returned the fire and in the fight five men fell to the ground. We waited until we saw that they were picked up and carried away, and then decided to discontinue the advance for the present. It was very dark and some of our deputies were in civilian clothes, hampering our distinguishing them."

Captain Brockus could not definitely state whether the five men were killed, but intimated that "probably four" were killed.

He said that he had talked with a man who came from Sharples after the battle had taken place and this man said that "some miners were killed, but was unable to tell whether all five of the men had been fatally wounded."

Captain Brockus said that later reports from Sharples indicated that the State police had "played in luck" in stopping where they did.

"We learned from Sharples that there were between 1,500 and 2,000 armed miners waiting for us to walk into a trap," Captain Brockus said, "and if we had advanced it seems assured a very serious situation would have developed."

All along the way, the State police officer explained, "pot shots" were being taken at the officers from men hidden in houses and in ambush.

He added that the march movement to Mingo county was a protest against martial law there had been successfully checked last week through the intervention of Federal authorities and mind workers' officials.

GAME TODAY

Decide Championship Of Sunday School League

The teams of the First Baptist and Southern Methodist Sunday Schools will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock on Baggett's field to play one of their postponed games. Around this game much interest is centered because it will be a battle for first place in the league. The incumbents, the Southern Methodists, feel sure that they will be able to strengthen their hold, while the Baptists feel equally sure that they will go back in the leading position which they have held so long this season and which they were forced to surrender only last Wednesday. This game will probably indicate which of these two teams is to be the champion of the Sunday School League.

BOY ROBBERS WRECK STORE

Malicious Destruction of Property in Store of Allen Brothers

DAMAGE ABOUT $500

For Second Time in Month Burglars
Invade Store of Sands and Company and Escape With Plunder.

Damage estimated at $500 was done by boys who late last night broke into the meat and provision store conducted by Allen Brothers, at the northwest corner of King and Payne streets. Two colored boys giving the names of James Lucas and Lee Jackson, about twelve years old each, arrested today by Policemen Durrer, Snellings and Welker are being held on suspicion of having committed the robbery.

Jackson admits being implicated to some extent in the robbery but Lucas denies any connection with the affair. The lads were malicious in their destruction of the property in the store and only got about $6 in pennies from the cash till. They, however, damaged a meat grinder to the extent of about $250. In addition they poured cans of linseed oil over the floor, broke several automobile tire tubes, destroyed a number of melons in the store and did other damages. It looked as if their chief aim was the destruction of the contents of the store. The lads will be given a hearing in the police court tomorrow. Entrance was effected through a rear window.

For the second time within a month burglars early this morning broke into and robbed the store of Sands and Company at the southwest corner of Dr. Carter and Wilkes streets. The thieves got away with seven watches, seventeen union suits. Entrance to the place was effected through the skylight. It is reported by neighbors that the robbery was committed by three white men. The police have a jack and a pass book a memorandum book which are the only clues found. This case was investigated by Sgt. Campbell, Nowland and Cline.

A burglar last night entered the garage of Frederick Ayers in the rear of his residence on the south side of King between Alfred and Patrick streets and got away with a bicycle which subsequently was recovered and turned over to the police.

Enrollment signifies willingness on the part of the student to comply with the regulations of the school. Monthly reports will be sent to the parent or guardian. STATE NEWS

Lynchburg.—The boiler room of the Lynchburg Glass Works was damaged by fire late Saturday, which will result in the plant being idle for several days for repairs. The plant has been making full time.

Petersburg.—Robert Meltner, aged 15, a white boy of 41 North Union street, was sent to the grand jury Friday, after a hearing before Justice Clements, charged with the theft of $600 in stamps from the residence of Harwood R. Hall, of Walnut Hill.

Lexington.—Visitors to the Mausoleum of General Robert E. Lee, the great Confederate chieftain, have averaged 100 daily during this summer, according to Mrs. Charles B. Tate, of Pulaski, the first custodian appointed by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Virginia division, which has undertaken the work of maintaining a custodian at the solicitation of Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Washington and Lee University here.

Richmond.—Sheriff Sydnor, of Henrico county, succeeded in capturing Daniel Clay, a negro, today after a chase of twelve hours. The man is charged with highway robbery in two cases. He jumped down a 100-foot embankment in his flight. The officers say the man has made a confession.

Richmond.—Two aviators from Quantico were forced to land here when their machine supply of fuel was exhausted, 1,500 feet up. They tried to volplane, but after a short distance to landing, a nose dive was necessary. The machine was badly wrecked, but the men escaped with minor bruises. They declined to give their names.

Richmond.—Richard E. Byrd, father of Lieutenant-Commander Byrd, was informed today that the failure to deliver a cablegram to Lieutenant-Commander Byrd saved his life. The message was delayed five minutes, causing him to miss reaching the start of the flight, Admiral Moffat sent the order directing Byrd to make the flight, a distinction for the young officer.

Norfolk.—The city will be thrown open this week to the men from the Marine, from the Argonne, from the city which took them over, and from the thousand and one branches of the military and naval service which made history in 1918. The State convention of the American Legion, which will open at the Monticello Hotel Thursday morning, will be the occasion for a gala-day rally throughout the city.

Fredericksburg.—The regular meeting of the Fredericksburg Medical Association was held at the Chamber of Commerce on Friday evening. The program included a paper by Dr. Lee Cooke, on "Impressions of Gynecology," which was ably presented. It was discussed by Drs. Payne, Barney, Harrison and Smith, after which Dr. Howard A. Masters presented a scientific treatise on "Internal Secretions."

Norfolk.—Mike Slaven, seaman, a roomer at the National Hotel, Main street, was carried to St. Vincent's Hospital early yesterday evening suffering from wood alcohol poisoning, and little hope is held for his recovery. The proprietor of the establishment discovered Slaven in his room and notified Dr. Evans, who was in the hotel at that time. The latter examined the seaman, who was unconscious, and announced that his trouble was due to drinking whiskey containing wood alcohol.

Winchester.—The building in which the late President McKinley was made a Master Mason while a major in an Ohio regiment during the Civil War—a low, two-story structure in the heart of the retail district here—is soon to be torn down to make way for a modern business building. The property, owned by heirs of the late Charles Brown, a colored barber, has been bought by Fred H. and Herman H. Hable, brothers, of Winchester and Washington. It was reported today the new owners were considering the erection of a hotel on the site.

Richmond.—Murder of an officer by a bootlegger and the attempted murder of another by a moonshiner in the last few days have caused a good deal of comment regarding the readiness of the persons engaged in illicit liquor traffic to take human life. It happens that the score in the latest engagement is a tie, so far as life is concerned, but the officers have the winning hand in that they have captured perhaps the largest individual still in the State and have been able to get lines on the operators of other large stills and learn the location of them. Boldness of the moonshiners and bootleggers has begun to turn sentiment against them, and the efforts of the officers of the law are having more effect than for a long time. Only ten days ago the officers killed a moonshiner who answered the order "Hands up" by aiming a pump-gun at the officers, one of whom fired and sent a ball through him.

Hoover Prepares Plan To Bring Best Brains To Bear On Problem.

CALLED BY HARDING

Unthinkable That Our Own People
Should Want, Says Secretary—To Meet Next Month.

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Harding will call a national conference, representative of the whole country to meet here next month to inquire into the unemployment problem.

Announcement of the President's intention was made tonight by Secretary Hoover, who was asked to formulate plans for the gathering. These, he said, would be ready for the President within ten days.

"The object of the conference," Mr. Hoover said, "will be to inquire into the volume of needed employment, the distribution of unemployment, to make recommendations as the measures that can properly be taken in co-ordinated, speeding up of employment by industries and public bodies during the next winter, and, in addition, a board study of economic measures desirable to ameliorate the unemployment situation and give impulse to the recovery of business and commerce to normal."

Many constructive suggestions have been made to the department by employers, Governors of States and by city officials.

While it has been determined to keep the number at the conference as small as possible, he said, so that the work may be done with expedition, it is intended to invite representatives of the greater groups of industries and thought, and the cooperation of national organizations will be sought in their selection.

The personnel of the conference, Mr. Hoover added, will be made up so as to represent the country geographically. The Commerce Department is to represent the Labor Department on representation of labor.

"While the business situation is steadily improving," Mr. Hoover stated, "some sections of the workers may have exhausted their savings by the coming winter, and these must become a matter of extreme solicitude. It is inconceivable that America, with its surplus of food and clothing, with housing—though crowded—yet with an abundance of fuel, could allow suffering among those of our own people who desire to work."

"Jump Steady" traffic violations and drunken and disorderly conduct were charged by the police against a majority of those who were taken in custody. The work started early Saturday night and continued till after 1 o'clock Sunday morning. In a number of instances the victims of "Jump Steady" were taken in groups by the police. Most of all of those arrested forfeited their collateral when their names were called in the police court today.

Fifteen were charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, eleven with violating the traffic law and speed laws and three with other offenses.

Policemen participating in the arrests included Sgt. Campbell and Detectives Palmer, Duncanson, Lawrence Padgett, Rawlett, Miller Lunsford, Welker and Thompson.

At the evening service he gave the story of his life which held the people for more than an hour and was a wonderful confession of what Christ can do for men.

At both services Captain McIntyre is here in the service of his Lord and Master Jesus Christ.

Dreadnaughts Victors

Defeat Triple A's By Score of 16 to 4 In First of Series for Championship.

The Dreadnaught Athletic Club baseball team defeated the Alexandria Athletic Club baseball nine in the first of a three game series for the Independent Baseball championship of northern Virginia yesterday by the following score: Dreadnaughts, 16; Triple A's, 4.

The game was fairly well played and was exciting from start to finish and the excitement caused many of the fans to act like the old-time plaster-of-paris spider when, ever, any person would place it suddenly before some unsuspecting victim and cause them to make flip-flops and somersaults.

The circus is not due in this city until Tuesday, but Frye, the Dreadnaught's twirler, surely had some of the Triple A lads standing on their heads and performing other gymnastic feats during the game yesterday.

Frye was given great support by his teammates, who also put the scores over the home plate that won the game. Every member of the Dreadnaughts played their positions in a creditable manner. It is true, that several errors were made, but they are excusable.

While the Triple A's lost their first game of the series, they are deserving of the highest praise for their manly traits in turning regard to win when fate seemed against them. There are no quitters, either, for some of those lads who battled in the Triple A's lineup are "Honor Men" who have fought upon many battlefields in France for the United States of America and the preservation of the world peace during the great world war. Some received serious wounds and left their bodies to die. "Old Mother Earth" in Sunny France for us, who were thousands of miles away from foreign foes. One lad (Herron), was shot through the body three times—and he is willing to serve his country again if necessary. Hats off to these brave lads, brother fans.

Jimmy Quayle, the Triple A's sharp-shooter, pitched well, but he is capable of doing much better, and, no doubt, he will try to "bamboo" the Dreadnaught's fence breakers in some future game of the series.

The umpires used in Sunday's contest treated both teams to fair decisions at all times, and they were satisfactory to the baseball fans.

The second game of the series will be played on the Dreadnaughts field, Sunday, September 4, 1921, at 3 o'clock p. m.

R.R. GET MEN STRIKE VOTES

Trainmen Use Ballot More
Drastic Than Other Four Bodies.

SEEK TO KEEP SCALE

Pledge Given That Officers Will Not Oppose Decision of Workers—409-
000 Men Involved.

Cleveland, Aug. 29.—Strike ballots on the acceptance or rejection of the recent $400,000,000 wage reduction recently ordered by the Railroad Labor Board were mailed tonight to the 400,000 members of the "Big Four" brotherhoods and the Switchmen's Union of North America.

The ballots revealed a difference of opinion among the chief executives of the five organizations, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors and the Switchmen's Union of North America.

The trainmen's ballot stated that it had been the intention of all the organizations to use a joint ballot, but that this was impossible, because the ballot adopted by the other organizations "did not, in our opinion, contain an impartial and unbiased recital of all that is involved, nor did it convey the assurance that the wishes of the men, if against working for reduced wages, would determine the question, and that they would be permitted to leave the service."

The joint ballot declared that if the membership vote was to reject the wage reduction which became effective on July 1, 1921, "it is to be understood that the men will be permitted to withdraw from the service of their respective companies unless satisfactory settlement can be reached under the laws of the organization."

"The proposition which confronts our members and others," said the trainmen's ballot, "carries with it an attempt to reverse the decision of the United States Railroad Labor Board on the wage reduction now in effect since July 1, or else persuade or compel the railroad companies to reinstitute wage rates that the Labor Board decided should be reduced."

"Many general chairmen at the Chicago meeting (on July 5) favored an immediate vote of the members on the wage cut, and held that if the necessary majority of the membership voted to leave the service, that a strike should be called forthwith in an effort to force a restoration of the rates that were in effect on June 30, 1921."

"All members and others are hereby notified that if the membership vote is in lawful, necessary majority to leave the service rather than continue service under the reduced wages now in effect, they will on any or all lines where such vote is secured (with the sanction of the general grievance committee) be given necessary authority by the president of the grand lodge will not (with the information given above) undertake to prevent the wishes of the men as expressed in their ballot, from being adhered to."

The number of active members of the five organizations to whom ballots were mailed was estimated at 150,000 trainmen, 115,000 firemen, 80,000 engineers, 50,000 conductors and 14,000 switchmen. In addition, the wage reduction had been previously voted upon by the six shop crafts under the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor. Although this vote was taken some time ago, the result has not been

JITNEY FINE $25

Failed To Stop While Electric Train Was Taking On Passengers

All vehicles must come to a complete stop when electric cars are taking on or letting off passengers said Justice Snow this morning in the police court when the driver of a jitney bus was charged by Police Sgt. Wilkinson with failing to stop when an electric car was about to take on passengers. The court fined the driver $25 and announced its intention to enforce the law to prevent some being seriously hurt or killed as a result of such practice.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Aug. 29.—The Senate Finance Committee has at last decided to lay aside further hearings on the Republican tariff bill and to begin consideration of the revision of the tax law. Chairman Fessenden of the Finance Committee is hoping that by the time Congress reconvenes after the recess, the tax revision bill will be ready to report to the Senate.

Up to date, the Finance Committee has completed hearings on only one fourth of the tariff bill. It does not seem possible that this measure will be ready for consideration of the Senate before the regular Congressional session which meets the first Monday in December. When a tariff bill will be placed upon the statute books is problematical. Shrewd observers believe it will well into next spring before the present Underwood law is superseded by what will be known as the Fordney-Penrose measure.

No Action In Deb's Case

Eugene Debs and other violators of the war measures of the government and who are now serving sentences in federal prisons will be compelled to continue their terms until after the treaty of peace between the United States and Germany has been ratified by the United States and the ratifications exchanged between the two countries. Despite the fact that a great deal of pressure has been brought to bear upon the President to grant a pardon to Debs and other so-called political prisoners, it has been determined by the Chief Executive, after a conference with Attorney General Daugherty that no action in this direction shall be taken until after the ratification of the peace treaty already signed by representatives of the United States and Germany.

To Oust Democrats

Harry M. Daugherty, the Republican Attorney General is making it very uncomfortable these days for Democratic U. S. marshals and attorneys throughout the U. S. Republican Senators and Congressmen are urging the Department of Justice and appoint Republican henchmen in their places. The latest victim of the Republican headman is Marshal McCarthy at New York. McCarthy, a Democrat, has been given notice that his successor will be appointed on November 1. Patronage grabbers are hard at work in Washington just now, and there is a general demand from Republican statesmen and politicians that lucrative places now held by Democrats shall be turned over to Republicans in all parts of the country.

Criticize Republicans

A good deal of unfavorable criticism, especially in Democratic circles is heard at the Capitol these days over the failure of the White House and State Department, in formulating a treaty of peace with Germany to make any mention in the past agreed upon about the trial of the former Kaiser, now sojourning in Holland and other countries just as if he were still the reigning of Germany. It had been expected that the treaty would make some provision for the trial of the former German Emperor but there is not a word in the text of the document which refers to this matter. It is doubtful if Kaiser Wilhelm will ever be brought before the bar of justice to answer for his many crimes.

Hits G. O. P. Congress

George White, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is performing great service in calling the attention of the country to the fact that a Republican Congress has seen fit to take an adjournment after passing any of the important measures for which the special session was called to enact. He points with pride to the record of the former Democratic Congress, which continued in session without a single break until after it had accomplished everything it was intended should be done. But the Republican Congress, both Senate and House, wasted its time and the money of the people in endless word battles, investigations and what not, without actually placing upon the statute books a single piece of legislation for the good of the country in general. There will be a reckoning day and that day is not far distant, in the judgment of Democrats in Washington at this time.

President Held By Business

President Harding would like to get away from official cares during the present recess of Congress but he finds that there are so many matters of public importance demanding his attention that it is doubtful if he can escape from Washington for more than a few days at a time. It seems that the President's wishes are being overruled by the members of the Cabinet or head of any important government bureau takes action upon any problem before him. The Chief Executive, it appears, must pass upon such matters in person. That is why he finds himself tangled up in the meshes of government activities. Apparently, he is not willing to leave the solution of any question to his subordinates in office.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Tappan are on an extended tour, in the course of which they will visit New York and Atlantic City.

TODAY'S THOUGHT A brave man struggling in the storms of fate, and greatly falling with a falling state. While Catb gives his little senate laws, what bosom beats not in his country's cause.

Alexander Pope.

MR. MOORE'S REMARKS

We publish elsewhere in today's paper, Hon. R. Walton Moore's remarks last week in the House on the Disarmament Conference. We are happy to note that Mr. Moore is in accord with the Gazette's editorial of the next day on the same subject. It is also interesting to note that Representative Moore was the first member of either branch of Congress to propose that the President bring about a disarmament conference. Being on the minority side, however, his proposition was defeated. Senator Borah's resolution, subsequently carried in the Senate and House, was identical in its objective.

EMPLOYEES PENSIONS

The Gazette has on two previous occasions referred to employees, benefits as granted by corporations operating in Alexandria. The Electric Light Company and the Telephone Company both have admirable systems in operation whereby faithful service for a term of years is recognized by the corporation. This is in obedience to sound economic law and its practice extends all over the United States. It recognizes community of interest and is one of the modern methods of strike-prevention. The fact that it met opposition at the outset, as do all reforms, apparently did not check its growth. Labor called it charity, and capital called it socialism. Both were wrong, as the years have shown.

We have just had the pleasure of reading the extended plan of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, giving in detail its pension system, and note the general spirit of fairness prevailing throughout. The pensions are contingent upon length of service and cause of disability. They range from a minimum of twenty dollars per month to a maximum of fifty-dollars per month; and arrange for an additional hundred dollars funeral allowance payable upon the death of any retired employee on the pension roll.

The system follows closely those in vogue in other large corporations. The safeguards are carefully planned and proper to the economic feature of permanent maintenance.

It seems that this pension feature has been in operation since the year 1916. It is one of the fixed charges that the Gazette can heartily endorse.

We take this occasion also, to compliment the employees of the Washington-Virginia

Railway Company. They are courteous and considerate of the passengers on the road, and in more than one instance we have seen them go out of their way to do a kindness. As often stated in these columns we wish only to be fair to all parties to a controversy. We would rather praise than censure the Washington-Virginia Railway Company. If it shall see the wisdom, as we see it, of reducing its fares; if it shall further consider the comfort and convenience of the public, to whom it is indebted for its very existence, the Gazette will be glad to express due appreciation.

THE NUMBER SEVEN

(For the Gazette.)
In the Lord's prayer there are seven petitions.

Jacob served seven years to win Rachel for his wife.

Noah had seven days' warning of the flood.

Nebuchadnezzar lived seven years as a beast.

The Savior spoke seven times from the cross on which He hung seven hours.

In the Scriptures there are seven resurrections mentioned.

There were seven mysteries of the Apocalypse revealed in the seven churches of Asia.

In Revelations there are described seven lambs before the seven spirits of God, seven golden candlesticks, a book with seven seals, seven angels with seven trumpets, seven players, seven vials of wrath, seven kings, seven thunders, and a dragon with seven heads.

On the seventh day of the seventh month a holy observance was ordained to the children of Israel, who feasted seven days and remained seven days in tents. The seventh day was supposed to be a Sabbath, or rest for all, and at the end of seven times seven there was to be a jubilee.

R. R. MEN GET STRIKE VOTE

publicly announced, but has been understood to be largely against the acceptance of the wage reductions.

Both strike ballots issued today recounted, the negotiations leading up to the wage increases, estimated at totaling $800,000,000, granted by the Railroad Labor Board on July 20, 1920. Following hearings which extended over several months the Labor Board granted a reduction in wages of approximately 12 1-2 per cent, and estimated at $400,000,000 a year on July 1, 1921. This was followed by a meeting of the general chairmen of the railway unions in Chicago submit the reduction to the men for acceptance or rejection.

VOICE THEIR THANKS

Just how much the children of France and Italy appreciate the libraries being presented to schools in the war-torn sections of those countries by the Junior American Red Cross is evidenced by letters like the one here quoted which are received at Red Cross National Headquarters at Washington. This particular letter was written by a French boy of Rambouillet. He says:

"In the name of all my comrades, I wish to express to you all our gratitude and appreciation for your shipment of books."

"Although being separated by the wide ocean, the young French boys will never forget the help you gave our country during the dreadful war. In peace time you still prove your generosity in thinking of the children of those who fell, beside your loved ones, on the battlefield of honor."

"Please say to the little children of America who are so kind to us, that we embrace them with all our heart."

AIDING EDUCATION

In a recent address, Miss Elizabeth D. Fisher, Instructor of Psychology, in the Lowell Normal School of Massachusetts said, "The hardest part of education is to create the desire for instruction on the part of the children. The Junior American Red Cross arouses such an interest, and not only that, it is actually laying a foundation of love, sympathy and mutual understanding between the children of the world."

WAS A WONDERFUL BLESSING TO HER

"My Gratitude Towards Tanlac Is Too Big for Words," States Virginia Woman.

"Tanlac has been such a wonderful blessing to me that I can't refrain from telling my experience for the benefit of others," said Mrs. Mary Yarbrough, of 406 West Marshal St., Richmond, Va.

"Before I began taking Tanlac I had indigestion so bad I couldn't eat food of any kind without suffering afterwards. What I ate would seem to lie in my stomach like a lump of lead, and as for gas, why, at times it was so bad I thought I would suffocate. I lost all desire for food and the very sight of it would nauseate me.

"My nerves were in a fearful condition and I slept so little at night that in the mornings I was so tired I could hardly get up, and the least little exertion tired me out completely. I tried many kinds of medicine, but they never helped my case at all and I became very despondent. My daughter urged me to try Tanlac till at last I consented and the very first bottle improved my appetite so I am now able to eat three hearty meals a day and never suffer a particle from indigestion.

"I have gained considerably in weight, my nerves are now as steady as can be and I get refreshing sleep at night. In fact Tanlac has put me in such fine shape I can do my housework, go down town shopping, or attend the movies, and enjoy living just like other folks. My gratitude to Tanlac is too big for words."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield.

Dull care takes to the brush at the approach of Howe's Great London Circus and Van Amburg's Trained Wild Animals great army of clowns. The undertaker becomes jovial, the chronic dyspeptic releases the frown from his forehead and holds his sides and the sedate judge laughs immoderately.

It is a show in which the comedy element cuts no small figure. Clowns have been gathered from all quarters of the globe, and the result is a well diversified array of droll stunts absolutely new and funnier than ever. Public events are travestied, prominent men are impersonated in grotesque caricature, short plays and screaming pantomimes are enacted and from beginning to the end the great arena rings with laughter.

The Howe-Van Amburg show enjoys the reputation of having the world's best clowns on its list of performers and of being the originators of all great clown stunts. Their standing is high and the most up-to-date mimicry is shown. There is a laugh a minute tucked away between exploits of daring and feats of skill, the great army of jesters filling every pause in the wonderful performance with shouts of laughter. It is the sort of nonsense that the best of men relish and are the better for having laughed at it.

The combined shows will exhibit in Alexandria on August 30 giving two performances at 2 and 8 p. m. Doors will open one hour earlier.

SATURDAY, AUG. 28, 1813.

AMERICAN NAVAL VIC-TORY!

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 21, 1813.

Yesterday arrived at this port the fine new American Privateer schooner "Decatur," from a cruise of 85 days, bringing in as prizes, His Britannic Majesty's schooner "Dominico," Lieutenant G. W. Barrette, late commander, captured on the 5th inst., and the British ship "London Trader," Captain Sinclair, bound from Surinam to London.

The Decatur was armed with six 12-pound carronades and one 12-pounder on a pivot. The Dominico had twelve 12-pound carronades, two long sixes, one brass 4-pounder, and one 32-pound carronade on a pivot. The Dominico was carried by boarding.

The fight lasted an hour... The crew of the enemy fought with as much courage and bravery as that of the Decatur did with valor and intrepidity. On boarding, fire-arms became useless and the crew fought hand to hand with cutlasses and throwing cold shot. When the captain of the enemy and the principal officers were killed, the deck covered with dead and wounded, the English colors were hauled down by the conquerors.

REPRESENTATIVE MOORE SPEAKS IN HOUSE ON DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

Mr. Moore of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I have no doubt all of us are in hearty sympathy with the pending proposition which is incident to the general effort that is going to be made to reach an agreement with respect to disarmament. It seems to me, that with one single exception, that effort is the most important question being whether it is possible to organize an association of nations that will be able to enforce any agreement that may be made by the disarmament conference or any other agreement the nations make with a view to maintaining international peace. Thus there is no hesitation on either side in generously appropriating what ever may be necessary for the purposes of the conference.

Last May, when the naval bill, in charge of the gentleman from Michigan was before the House I offered an amendment requesting the President to bring about a disarmament conference and providing an appropriation to pay the expense of holding it. That amendment was subjected to a point of order. But the leader on the other side. (Mr. Mondell) went beyond the point of order and said that the amendment implied disrespect to the President. But within a very short time the Borah amendment, similar to that I had offered, was passed by the Senate and came to the House, when it was criticized by the gentleman from Wyoming, not as disrespectful to the President, but as not going far enough. The House wisely approved the Borah amendment, and we are now fortunate in the prospect of a disarmament conference which we all trust will have results that will make for peace throughout the future.

Protection Means More Than a Bank Account!

A bank account is an excellent thing to have but it soon melts away when it comes to replacing household furniture, your home or your automobile, should they be destroyed by fire or other unforeseen agency.

There is a way to protect all these things by spending only a small fraction of your bank account. And this way provides every protection against almost every kind of accident or happening over which you have no control.

An insurance policy of the right kind will protect your house, your furniture, your automobile and will do it in such a way that places practically all responsibility on the agent and the insurance company.

We can give you a policy that covers losses from fire, collision, liability for personal injuries to a pedestrian, or any other way in which you might get into trouble with your machine. And our policies are with companies that are reliable and that insure you your money without quibbling, providing your claim is just and reasonable.

Try us today and you will always be one of our customers.

RICHMOND THEATRE

Every reader of current literature will recall the sensation caused by the publication several years ago of Winston Churchill's powerful novel, "The Inside of the Cup." The story attacked the alleged hypocrisy of certain clergymen and men of wealth identified with churches as vestrymen. The philosophy of the book was criticized by churchmen in this country and in England as an unwarranted attack upon religion and the cloth.

The picture rights having been obtained by Cosmopolitan at great expense, the story was pictured by Albert Capellani, a famous director and the film version will be shown at the Richmond Theatre today.

ANSWERING A QUESTION

"What do the school children, members of the Junior American Red Cross, find to do for others?" is a question that often reaches the ears of teachers and those who are working with the children in their self-appointed tasks of bestowing happiness and cheer.

A glance through a report, taken at random from the many that reach Red Cross National Headquarters, is sufficient to answer the oft-repeated question. Here is an extract from the first that comes to hand:

"A teacher reported an orphan boy suffering from a disease which made it impossible for him to run and play with other boys, or to take any part in their games. He had had this trouble for many years. When a specialist came to his city, the boy was taken to the hospital and operated upon successfully. He remained there for two weeks and the hospital and doctor's bill for the operation were paid from Junior funds. At the same time a little boy whose mother was a widow was operated upon or removal of adenoids and diseased tonsils. His bill was paid in the same way.

Fruit was sent a little girl who was ill for a long time at her home, and picture books were sent a little boy from a neighboring county who was ten weeks in the local hospital. This little boy had only rags to wear when he came to the hospital, but through the efforts of the Juniors and the social service committee of the Civic League, he was comfortably clothed when he went home.

"Milk was sent to her school each day for a little orphan girl. She was much under weight and the milk helped keep her strong enough to stay in school.

"Sweaters, mittens, trousers, have been provided for several children who lacked warm clothing in the winter.

Through the schools many cases have been brought to the attention of proper committees and help given in need. In one case a little boy with an abscess on his lung was reported by his teacher. The visiting nurse went to see him and after six months care he was cured and is now in school."

This report covered only a part of the work of the Juniors in the schools of one of our Cross Chapters. Does it answer the question?

BIGGER PICTURES COMING NEXT SEASON AS RESULT OF FAN'S REMAND FOR VARIETY.

As a result of the motion picture public's demand for more variety in films, Paramount Week, which will be celebrated by most of the theaters of the country during the week of September 4-10, is likely to usher in a season which will be rich in big productions, surpassing any that have been shown heretofore.

The industrial slump, the continued hot weather of this last summer and other conditions combined during the summer to form a buyers' strike on the part of film fans. "The public is blase from pictures," said one well known film producer.

Accordingly, the film producers exerted every effort to make their pictures bigger and better than ever, with the desire of offering the most tempting fare to film fans this season.

The list of Paramount pictures scheduled for early release this season, which will be inaugurated by Paramount Week as a national demonstration for better motion pictures, shows that Paramount is leaving no stone unturned to improve the standard of its productions.

"The Affairs of Anatol," directed by Cecil B. DeMille with a cast including Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Bobe Daniels, Monte Blue, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres, Theodore Kosloff, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton and Julia Payne is expected to be the most talked-about picture of the new season.

"The Great Moment," written by Elmer Glyn especially for Gloria Swanson as Miss Swanson's first Paramount starring picture, is announced.

other early fall release. At pre-release showings in New York this picture created a sensation, and smashed all records at the Rivoli Theater during the hottest two weeks of the summer.

Elsie Ferguson in "Footlights" is another picture that is expected to prove a sensational hit. This picture was directed by John S. Robertson, who, staged "Sentimental Tommy" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

Betty Compson's first Paramount starring picture, "At the End of the World," is being heralded as something out of the ordinary in its conception and execution. This picture is the first produced by Penrhyn Stanuland, the noted illustrator, who, as everybody now knows, gave up his brush to become a film director.

Another big production coming soon is "Experience," produced for Paramount by George Fitzmaurice. Richard Barthelmess plays the role of Youth in this celluloid translation of George V. Hobart's famous morality play.

William deMille and Rita Weiman, the short story writer, have been busy for the last several months at the Paramount studio in Hollywood, working on a picture produced by Mr. deMille from Miss Weiman's story, "The Stage Door." The picture will be known as "After the Show," and is said to be the best thing this artist of the films has ever produced.

Lila Lee, Jack Holt and Charles Ogle are in the leading parts.

Another picture which is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest is "Ladies Must Live," the last production made by George Loane Tucker before his death. Tucker's "The Miracle Man" is likely to remain for some time to come as the best picture ever produced in this country, and naturally the public is interested in "Ladies Must Live."

All in all, it looks as if the movies needed only a little spur from the public to jump into their best stride.
